Through the Law...

Kate Sears, Marin County Supervisor

Support the County of Marin in their bold lawsuit against 37 fossil fuel companies for $15.5 billion in damages due to sea level rise.

Marie Logan, Attorney, Earthjustice

Learn about the groundbreaking work underway using the power of the courts to defend the planet and address climate justice issues.

...and Through the Arts

Christina Barkley, Dancer, College of Marin

Through word, dance, and music Christina Barkley, Zeinab Benchakroun, Morgan La Manna, Andrea Taylor and Patrick Costello perform a parable of how climate change turns the life of one young girl upside down.
